

THE DAILY and WEEKLY HERALD has more than double the circulation of any other paper published in Southern California. Business men recognize it accordingly as the best advertising medium South of San Francisco.

SATURDAY,.....MARCH 25, 1876.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The Opera House and Boston Dry Goods Store were burned at San Antonio, Pa., yesterday. Loss $150,000; insurance $75,000. Lieutenant-Governor Davis of Mississippi has been impeached and removed from office.

In the Emma mine investigation yesterday some interesting facts were developed. An attempt was made to fire the Postoffice Block and Second National Bank at San Antonio, Pa., last night. A reward of $3000 is offered for the incendiaries.

BEN BUTLER is coming to California. Hide your silver spoons.

MOUNT Vesuvius is belching forth fire and smoke and ashes, and Congress is kicking out rascally, thieving Republican Federal officials.

BEAUTIFUL women have been the bane of GRANT'S Administration. Susceptible innocents, those higher law Republicans.

SUNSET COX wants to know how much money there is in the United States Treasury. He thinks there is more "on paper" than on hand. SUNSET is a shrewd guesser.

DON'T write any more magazine articles. HARPER has an accepted supply for two years to come and the Second Adventists say the world will end next year.

THE President wants to make ex-Congressman COGHLAN of this State Chief Justice of Utah. If the appointment is a good one it don't require a very smart man to be Chief Justice in Utah.

MANY of our contemporaries are bitter in their denunciation of the Senators who voted for the press gag bills. We deprecate such a course. The poor gentlemen are hardly responsible parties. Better exclaim "Father, forgive them; they know not what they do."

COHEN and ROBINSON want STANFORD & Co. restrained from disposing of their property. If they had kept COHEN in their employ a while longer they would have had no property to dispose of.

OUR dispatches inform us that another Federal defalcation has been unearthed. Another BABCOCK is held up to the public gaze as a defaulter. This time the theft is committed in the San Francisco Mint. It is strange that Superintendent LAGRANGE should lend himself to an effort to keep hidden a crime of such magnitude. The construction of the Mint building was a fraud and a swindle and almost before the paint was dry on the outside of the structure a defalcation of $50,000 is discovered on the inside. More cargo for the immaculate Republican party to unload.

What San Francisco Wants.

Rumor has it that a Democratic paper is soon to be started in San Francisco on a cash capital sufficiently large to insure permanent success. We are not informed who are the financial backers of the enterprise, nor has the old dame who blows through a thousand pipes, favored us with the names of the editors and managers of the proposed new journal. The newspaper field of San Francisco is pretty well filled, but there is ample space for an independent Democratic paper, yet unoccupied. A paper of this character conducted by men well informed on political issues of the day and not so wedded to the Democratic party that they cannot maintain right however weak, and condemn wrong, no matter by whoever committed, will succeed in San Francisco. The people of that city are Democratic in feeling and principle, but they want their Democratic newspaper to be Democratic from a conviction of right and not through party subservience. They want a paper that will maintain Democratic principles rather than uphold Democratic leaders and support Democratic office seekers. They want a Democratic paper that will stand by the interests of the masses and not become the servant of money rings, political cliques and oppressive corporations. They want a Democratic paper that has the moral courage to denounce fraud, corruption and speculation, without regard to what party or individual falls the responsibility. They want a Democratic paper that is too independent and too honest to become an apologist for weak minded and direct Democratic officials and too fair minded to attack without cause honorable and faithful officials of opposing politics. In short they want a Democratic paper that will not extenuate nor set down ought in malice—that will hew to the line let the chips fall where they may. If the new paper will adopt this course at the outset and maintain it through good and evil report, eschewing neither to the right nor the left, it will soon secure a self sustaining patronage and win for itself a reputation not now possessed by a single journal of San Francisco—that of a journal that praises no man for his gold nor denounces no man because of his poverty; that advocates no unworthy candidate because of his party and opposes no capable and honest citizen on account of his political opinions; that is honest in its expressions and determined to maintain what it believes to be for the best interests of the whole people.

An Important Step.

In sending a delegation of her leading citizens to Washington for the purpose of protesting before Congress against the tide of Chinese immigration now pouring into our State, and for appealing for an repeal of the law which permits the unrestrained coming of these pagans, San Francisco is taking an important step in the right direction. It is a wise provision, too, that this delegation is to be composed in equal proportion of men of opposing political faith. Up to this time our protests, both in the public journals and from the stump, against Chinese immigration have assumed rather the shape of political capital, than of an earnest appeal for relief from a pest infested people, and have been therefore wanting in the force and earnestness that carries sincerity of desire and determination of purpose. Senators and Congressmen have read the inveighing of the press and stump speaker in the light of campaign buncombe and political claptrap, and, per consequence, Congress but imperfectly comprehending the magnitude of the question, has up to this time treated it as of little consequence. A committee of citizens of all political creeds will divest the issue of its campaign glamour and present it to Congress in its real hideousness. They will exhibit it as it is—a growing curse, which, if not removed, will ultimately blight and turn to ashes our commercial, manufacturing, agricultural and mining interests, check the immigration of those of our own color and religion, drive from the store, workshop, field and mine the laboring white men and women now here, and turn the temples dedicated to the living God into Joss houses, in which the pagan will bow down to idols of wood and stone. They will do much in the way of allaying the jealousy felt by the Federal Government against the right of a State to legislate for itself, and will convince those Senators and representatives that the question is not one of political significance, but of great social importance, and that the future prosperity and greatness of the Pacific Coast, and perhaps of the whole United States, depends on prompt and decisive action against the pouring of Chinese hordes on our shores.

Seeking Notoriety

Officer McFadden rushes into print in last evening's Express in a card in which he denies that a strong case was made out against him as a disturber of the peace in the matter of the arrest of Mr. Rutger. How weak or how strong the case was, parties desirous of knowing will be more likely to learn from the records of the Mayor's Court than from officer McFadden's card. The Republican of last evening gives the following account of the matter:

Mayor Beaudry this morning discharged Joseph Rutger who had been arrested by officer McFadden for keeping a disorderly house. He was also acquitted on the charge of resisting an officer. The testimony was that the greatest disorder was created by the officer making the arrest and his habit of putting pistols to men's heads must be stopped. It is about time for the Marshal and Council to take some action on these police outrages.

Mr. Rutger informs the HERALD that officer Carpenter, who was present at the time he was arrested, remonstrated with McFadden and told him he should not conduct himself in such a manner. We did not hear, nor have we read the testimony in the case, but the fact that Mr. Rutger was discharged on every charge is pretty good evidence that his offense was not of a character to warrant the placing of a pistol to his head accompanied by the threat that if he did not do thus and so the top of his head would be blown off. This is the testimony of six or eight witnesses. The HERALD has not misrepresented officer McFadden. In his capacity of policeman he is in the employ of the people of this city, and we shall speak of police officers and other officials as we find them, without stopping to consider whether they like it or not. The matter in which officer McFadden and his pistol played so conspicuous a part will be duly investigated by the Commission Council, when we presume the same strong case will be made out against him that the Mayor's record now shows.

On Sunday, March 26th, a grand pigeon shooting match will take place at East Los Angeles, on the grounds near the terminus of the Spring street and East Los Angeles Railroad track, under the management of Messrs. Slaughterback, Ed. Bean, Mr. Kenzie, James Ritchie and others. At the termination of the first match, there will be shooting for sweepstakes, open to all. Refreshments will be provided on the grounds. The match will take place at ten o'clock A.M. The public are cordially invited to attend. The Spring street cars will run during the day to the end of the track at East Los Angeles.

The following letters are held for postage in the Los Angeles Post Office and will be sent to the Dead Letter Office unless called for in three days: Miss Kittle Caystille, city; Miss Polhemus, A. Colton, Miss Emma Kendall, San Francisco; Samuel Calvert, Rising Sun, Ind.; James Calvert, Burlington, Ky.

It is stated that E.J. Baldwin, owner of the Academy of Music, is about to commence suit against parties in this city, alleged to have injured the Academy building. The object of the suit is not so much to recover damages, though that point is included, as to furnish the public with the facts in regard to the construction and safety of the building.

Two car loads of Mediterranean oranges are now en route to this city overland. The shipment is unprecedented in years, and is due to the high price of Los Angeles oranges now ruling.

Pool selling to-night on the two-mile race is lively, but the pools are small. The following is about the average: Golden Gate, $80; Chance, $27.50; Revenue, Jr., $47.50; Hook Hocking, $37.50. Foster will not start. All the horses are in good condition, and as the track is in fine order a good race and time are anticipated. Nothing approaching the disgraceful management of the four-mile race will be tolerated.

Legislative Proceedings.

SACRAMENTO, March 24.—Upon the re-assembling of the Senate last evening the special file containing only local bills was considered.

The House on Buildings reported favorably upon the Assembly bill providing for the safety of persons attending public assemblies and the Assembly bill extending the franchise heretofore granted to certain persons to erect booms on Kings river, Tulare county, for the purpose of improving certain portion of the river, was passed.

Roach's bill regulating the practice of Pharmacy in San Francisco was also passed. The consideration of the measure affecting San Francisco, occupied the Senate until a very late hour.

In the Assembly to-day the Committee on Corporations reported against the Assembly bill incorporating the city of Monterey.

The Senate bill making an appropriation of $25,000 to aid in the proper representation of California at the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia was introduced.

Roach, Lewis and Pierson spoke eloquently in favor of the bill, and Laine, Gibbons and Satterwhite opposed it. The question then came on the engrossment of the bill. After further debate the bill was ordered engrossed.

The Committee of Internal Improvements reported back the bill in relation to the State burying ground, providing for the erection of a central monument in said cemetery. The bill was taken up and passed.

Roach had leave to introduce a bill concerning the application of the Burlingame Treaty to the State of California.

Laine, from the special Committee to whom was referred the question, first, whether the Regents of the State University are a legal body; second, whether a judicial officer can legally act as a Regent; Third, whether the constitutional limit of four years for the duration of official terms applies to said Regent, to any of the Regents, reported as follows: To the questions the Committee had to answer that the Regents of the University were a legally constituted body; that a judicial officer could act as Regent of the University and at the same time act in strict accord with the letter and the constitutional limit of duration of an office did not apply in the case before the Committee.

The second special order was the Senate bill relating to the preservation of fish in the waters of the State, naming of the nets to be used, caused a discussion of several hours. Finally, upon the passage of the bills, the ayes and noes were called and the bill was passed by a vote of 22 ayes to 13 noes.

Pierson gave notice of a reconsideration.

Adjourned till 7:30.

Superior's bill fixing the compensation of the Supervisors of San Bernardino county was passed.

Haines' Assembly bill re-incorporating the town of San Buenaventura was indefinitely postponed.

Satterwhite's bill authorizing the Board of Supervisors of San Bernardino county to issue bonds for building certain railroads was indefinitely postponed.

Lewis' bill authorizing the Board of Trustees of Colusa to aid in the construction of a branch railroad was also indefinitely postponed.

The Assembly bill protecting irrigation and making water rights responsible for expenses incurred in irrigating ditches in San Bernardino county was taken up under suspension of the rules and passed.

The Senate bill concerning public records in the office of the county recorder of San Bernardino county was also passed.

The Assembly bill providing for the appointment of an inspector of steam boilers and steam tanks for the better security of life and property in the city and county of San Francisco, was read a third time and passed.

Adjourned.

Upon re-assembling the House proceeded to the consideration of the O'Connor Transportation Commissioner bill, which was the special order for the hour. The consideration of the bill moved the previous question, to place the bill upon its passage and to cut off amendments. The motion was lost. The House then considered the bill in Committee of the Whole.

Precisely the same amendments that were offered in the Senate by the friends of the Archer bill were then presented by those members belonging to the most radical anti-railroad side of the House. The purpose is evidently to impair the usefulness of the bill, and to impugn the good faith manifested by the Senate in its adoption as a substitute for the obnoxious Archer measure, and in its subsequent passage.

Archer offered an amendment providing that no railroad in the State shall charge more than ninety per cent. of the tariff in force on the first day of January, 1876. The effect of this amendment would be to take off ten per cent. of the income of every railroad in the State. The discussion on the amendment consumed several hours. Archer, Clarken, Berry, McKenna, Cluney, and Koutz favored the amendment and supported their propositions with forcible arguments; McConnell, Murphy of Del Norte and Abbott of Monterey had a decided advantage in opposing the amendment, in as far as the merits of the question were concerned. The amendment if incorporated in the bill would work quite as much injury to street railroad lines as the arbitrary provisions of the late Archer bill.

The previous question was called upon the passage of the bill, upon which the ayes and noes were demanded, and the result was 33 ayes to 42 noes, so the motion was lost.

The question was then called upon the amendment, resulting in a vote of 38 ayes to 35 noes. A majority not voting in the affirmative the amendment was lost.

Mr. Blue offered an amendment, settling the rate at 93 per cent. This was of a like nature with the Archer amendment and had the same intention in view. The ayes and noes were then called with the following result: 25 ayes and 45 noes, and the amendment was lost.

McKenna, following the example of Judge Archer, offered an amendment settling the rate at 95 per cent. Adopted by a vote of 42 ayes to 35 noes. Several members who strongly opposed the amendment in their speech, voted directly contrary to what they said to be their convictions in the matter. Several other alterations of a technical character, not affecting the general provisions of the bill, were afterwards made and adopted.

The question then was on the passage of the bill. The ayes and noes were called and the bill was passed by the following vote: Ayes, 75, noes, none.

Murphy of Del Norte asked leave to withdraw his commissioner bill for the reason that the O'Connor bill embodied all the features contained in his bill. Leave was granted. The House then adjourned.

In the Assembly to-day the Committee on Ways and Means reported in favor of the Senate bill concerning the mortgage on growing crops; also recommending the passage of the Assembly bill appropriating one hundred thousand dollars for the erection of a building for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum at Oakland.

The Senate bill revising the Incorporation Act of the city of Los Angeles, coming up in the Senate messages was referred to the Los Angeles delegation.

The West Side Irrigation bill was taken up from the Senate message and all the amendments of the Senate concerning the mortgage on growing crops, also recommending the passage of the Assembly bill appropriating one hundred thousand dollars for the erection of a building for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum at Oakland.

EDWARD P. TOMKINSON.

The Lodge, Green Meadows, Los Angeles.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Japs to-night.

Matinee this afternoon.

G. W. Morgan has money to loan.

The steamer Los Angeles is due to-day.

There is a prospect of more rain and mud.

Mr. J. M. Rothchild has a new boy.

Butler & Severance have the corner on Real Estate.

Notices of special Sunday services should be handed in to-day.

Take your job printing to the HERALD steam job office.

They say there will be an eclipse of the sun to-day.

Major Ben. C. Truman, of the Star, is on a short visit to San Francisco.

The San Diego Union entered upon its eleventh volume last Tuesday.

"The Enchanted Prince," or "The Shoemaker's Dream," at Turn-Verein Hall to-morrow evening.

Haines vs. Romero, a pre-emption case, is on trial before the United States Land Office of Los Angeles.

Mr. Thomas Strohm gave an exhibition of his skill and dexterity in turning at Turn-Verein Hall last evening.

An engine got off the track below the Alameda street depot yesterday, but no serious damage was done.

The pay car went to Anaheim yesterday. The railroad boys hope that it will stop in Los Angeles to-day.

The Orizaba sails to-morrow for San Francisco. Passengers take the four P. M. train from the S. P. R. R. depot.

The Commissioners on widening San Fernando street made an inspection of the property in that vicinity yesterday.

Some one will get a bargain in the purchase of those beautiful magnolia trees for sale at Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express Office.

The Coast Line stages are now running on regular time and the route is fast gaining favor with the travelling public.

Apples are worth as much or more than oranges, in Southern California. Why not plant apple trees in the high lands?

Piper's Opera House company drew a full house in Wilmington Thursday evening. Yesterday they went to Anaheim for two performances.

Get your cards, posters, pamphlets and books printed on the HERALD's new type and fast steam presses. We do first-class work at San Francisco prices.

That Lone Jack and Uncle Toby smoking tobacco sold by George Pridham at the Express Cigar Depot is simply delicious. We know, for we have tried it.

There will be an excursion to Seven Palms under the management of the Southern Pacific Railroad on Wednesday, the 29th inst. Everybody should go out and see the desert.

Mrs. E. L. Watson will preach the funeral sermon of Anna Belle and Mary Julia Garey at the residence of Mr. Thomas A. Garey to-morrow. Both of the deceased departed this life in the Spring of 1875.

Rev. A. M. Campbell lectured at Trinity church last evening on "Magnetism and Electricity." The lecture was illustrated with philosophical apparatus and proved very interesting and instructive.

The German play of "Der Vermuthene Priuz" will be presented at Turn-Verein Hall to-morrow evening in which Messrs. Glass, Herberger, Schroeder and Mr. and Mrs. Maehl will appear.

H. Myerstein has this day received direct from the manufacturer a very large assortment of ladies' Misses' and children's shoes at his new store, 49 Main street, under the Lafayette Hotel.

Mr. Hancock M. Johnston has purchased Mr. Rose's fine thoroughbred mare "Barbara" and "Greathon," by "Belmont," the "Ballard" mare, the "Gibson," and a fine animal called "Madame Thompson."

Wells, Fargo & Co. have at their office in this city a fine lot of Magnolia trees direct from the East, and which they offer for sale to cover charges. Owners of fine gardens would do well to call.

The Gazette says that Captain Black reports all the lumber hauled away from the Nick Biddle except 20,000 feet. It will be remembered that this craft was foundered at Anaheim Land some time ago.

The Excursion to Seven Palms on the 29th inst. is the subject of much discussion. The fact that it is under the management of Col. Hewitt, and that Superintendent of the Southern Pacific railroad, is a sufficient guarantee that it will be all that could be desired.

The case against Hittchell who was engaged in the shooting scrape at Boland's saloon was decided by Judge Gray yesterday morning. Hittchell proved that he simply acted in self-defence while exchanging shots with Boland, and he was accordingly discharged.

"The Shaw Tract" is advertised for sale by Mr. G. W. Morgan. These lots are on San Pedro street opposite the Independence depot. They are in a section of the city which is developing very rapidly and will be an excellent investment for residence or speculation.

Four new suits against the debtors of Temple & Workman's Bank were commenced in Judge Gray's Court by the assignees yesterday.

A Centennial Tea-Party.

We reprint from the Press the following report of a pleasant and somewhat novel entertainment which was held in Santa Barbara on the 21st inst. We trust that some of the ladies of our city will take the matter in hand and give us something of the kind. The Press says: Last night one of the most agreeable evenings of the season was spent in the parlors of the Presbyterian church. The rooms had been beautifully decorated by the ladies, the results being a perfect bow-wow of loveliness. Over three hundred and fifty persons sat down to supper, at which everything that could be wished for was to be had for the asking. A large number of ladies were handsomely dressed in the costumes of a century ago, and with their natural grace and beauty heightened by the becoming costumes, made a sight well worth seeing. If our ancestors could have been present to witness the scene they would have been highly gratified with the old time dignity and grace reproduced by their descendants. One of the principal features was a log cabin of considerable dimensions, the inside representing a New England home, the custom being the reception of the bride and bridegroom just returned from their wedding tour. The bridegroom of the occasion says he has considerable doubts as to whether he will ever get his back straight again after making so many elaborate bows to the visitors. During the evening some very good music and singing were given. Mrs. Ketchum and Mrs. Wright sang solos which were warmly applauded. Some choruses were sung by members of the Philharmonic Society and instrumental pieces were played by Mrs. Jones, Prof. Neumeyer and Mr. J. C. Platt. The party broke up at half past nine o'clock. Great credit is due to the ladies for the excellent manner in which they perfected all their arrangements and it was a cause of regret to all who did that there would be no repetition this evening. However, it was whispered that a second entertainment will be given between now and the Fourth of July. By all means let us have another one.

The Real Estate Business.

The immense demand for real estate which has prevailed in this city and valley during the past two years has induced many to turn their attention to the real estate business, and among them have appeared quite a number of irresponsible parties—irresponsible in their transactions, in their assumed agencies, for their contracts and for the payment of their advertising and other bills. These wrongs have through persistent annoyance of land seekers, and their misstatements relative to their authority to sell this or that piece of property, brought a legitimate and honorable business to be looked upon as the occupation of shysters, Jeremy Diddlers and inequitable adventurers. We have, however, a number of real estate firms conducted by business men, whose transactions are honorable and whose statements may be accepted as reliable and trustworthy. Among these stands the firm of Butler & Severance. These gentlemen are fittingly located on the corner of Spring and Temple streets, in the rooms formerly occupied by the Pomona Land Company, a real estate office that is worthy of the name. Their walls are lined with maps of the best purchasable land in the valley, and on their tables will always be found the latest daily and weekly journals. They sell only land which they own or are duly authorized to sell, and while they never indulge in the bounding process of inducing a man to purchase, they are every ready to answer all questions relative to land, its locality, value and quality which may be asked by the seeker after information. We cheerfully commend Messrs. Butler & Severance to the new comer and land seeker as gentlemen whose business qualifications are first-class, and whose transactions will be found strictly honorable in every respect. In another column they inform the public where they can be found and what they propose to do.

We were present last night at Turn-Verein Hall where Mr. Strohm, the new instructor, was exercising himself and his pupils. Mr. Strohm is a perfect gymnast, and can do anything in that line that a man with a perfect physical development is capable of accomplishing. He will give lessons to the little folks from eight to fourteen years old on Tuesdays and Fridays of each week, and as it is much easier to prevent than to cure disease, we hope that all the children will have a chance to exercise themselves and become athletic, healthy, muscular and energetic men.

Some time ago Mr. Gus Coleman, the popular book-keeper at Keller's Wine Depot, being in a speculative humor bought a ticket in the Havana Lottery, No. 10,500, which he has just received notice has drawn $1,000. Gustavus now means to become a millionaire, and he has no doubt presented the aforesaid ticket to his maternal ancestor, and the cash will not be distributed by him. His numerous friends are sorry.

Mr. C. H. Ayling, S. H. Evans and Mrs. Mrs. T. E. Austin who were prominent in getting up the excursion to Whitewater some time since, leave this morning on the Coast Line stage for San Francisco—determined to see the beauties of that favorite route which will complete their survey of Southern California. They will remain a few days at Santa Barbara.

The HERALD acknowledges a visit from Mr. C. A. Smith, late editor of the Monmouth, (Ill.) Atlas, and Mr. J. R. Berry, ex-Clerk of the same city. These gentlemen are live, enterprising men of the class our country most needs. We hope they will conclude to take up their permanent residence among us.

Isadore Cohen has been to San Francisco and bought a lot of cigars and tobacco that he says cannot be excelled on this coast. Any one desirous of discussing the question can find Isadore at the Main street entrance to the Palace saloon and try the cigars and tobacco aforesaid for a consideration.

Four new suits against the debtors of Temple & Workman's Bank were commenced in Judge Gray's Court by the assignees yesterday.

Gleanings.

The steamer Los Angeles arrives to-day.

A false alarm of fire was sounded Thursday evening about 5:30.

Dr. Lindley has removed his office to No. 12 and 13 Temple Block.

A sparring match on the evening of April 1st.

The Wigwam saloon will be removed to the basement of the White House.

The East Los Angeles railroad is one block east of the hotel.

Owing to the heavy condition of the stage road between the Tunnel and Caliente the 3:40 A. M. train from this city to San Fernando Tunnel has been discontinued, and until further notice passengers from this city for San Francisco and the North will leave this city at 8:10 P. M.

The Anaheim Gazette of the 23d contains the following interesting item: "At the Episcopal service on Sunday last the Pastor, Rev. W. S. Neales, reported as the result of his visit to the Francisco to solicit subscriptions for the Church Building Fund, the sum of $751. This amount is exclusive of expenses, $70, and sums of money promised, and also aid in material."

W. H. Winters of the Important has, without doubt, the most complete stock of gentlemen's clothing and furnishing goods ever brought to this city. He makes a specialty of these articles and consequently can give better satisfaction than those who dabble in all sorts of merchandise.

Don Mateo Keller has five varieties of the Eucalyptus for sale at a low figure. They grow remarkably fast.

A fashionable young lady of Chicago was heard to remark that she had not got anything new this Winter, and didn't expect to get much "until after father falls."

The funeral sermon of Anna Belle and Mary Julia Garey who were born into the spirit world in the Spring of 1875 will be preached by Mrs. E. L. Watson at the residence of Thomas A. Garey on San Pedro street on Sunday March 26, 1876, at 2 o'clock P. M. Friends of the family are invited to attend. m25-17

L. Roeder, Spring street, between First and Second, manufactures all styles of wagons and carriages and does repairing in a first-class manner. Mr. Roeder uses nothing but the best material, and he employs the best workmen to put it together, so that his work for durability and finish cannot be excelled in Southern California. Sole agent in this city for the celebrated Mitchell wagon. mar16-17
